Dear Joe,
You sure have made yourself a leader in your first year at B.H.S.
Joe, you certainly are a terrific kid, tops in your grade. Best of luck always. Have a good summer
Fred.

Dear toothless
the coming year?
Big year a good kid, big,
P.S. and your a good kid, big,
dumb.

Dear Joe,
Best of Luck in comming years
don Owen

Dear Joe
lots of luck to a sweet girl has fun
this summer but we good.
the to the boys
Bill Dyer

Dear Joe,
There is one thing I've wanted all this year I've gotten some of it to that is your friendship. Joe and all such stuff to a wonderful leader
that I haven't let her popularity go to her head. Joe and loads of luck always
of "Clara"

Dear Joe,
Loads of happiness
and success
Debbie Bramatt

Dear Joe,
We've had lots of fun
in our first year at Brighton High. Hope I'll
be sitting next to you in English
Class again, come
next year.

Your Friend
Steve Levine
"52"

Dear Joe,
Good luck
to a darn sweet kid, during all the years to come
Love
Susan.

Dear Joe
So one of the most terrific kids in Brighton I wish
loads of luck.

BRIGHTON . . . for four eventful years
the very core of our existence.

Like an experienced stonecutter, it has taken us unformed, and endeavored to increase our usefulness and value. From reluctance to absorb education to a sincere thirst for knowledge, from unorganized scattering of activities to thoughtful specialization, and from awkward adolescence to the beginning of a new-found maturity, it has striven to smooth each facet of personality and character.

Directly or indirectly the focal point of our lives, Brighton has prepared us for worthwhile extension of its principles. As the tapestry of time unfolds the history of our years at Brighton, we realize they can be expressed by the simple phrase . . .

So Revolves

ent. Doe.
To my next door

Arthur E. Harris
Principal

• HELPING us to smooth out the wrinkles in high school life, Arthur E. Harris, Brighton High School principal, has inspired high ideals. His keen interest and friendly smile, tireless planning and dutiful execution of these plans have marked his five years as BHS principal.

Coordination of activities and direction of disciplinary action are only two of the countless duties that have fallen upon Francis E. Davies. His patience and kind understanding have encouraged us many times during this first year as vice-principal.

Council of the Gods

Standing: Schutt, Hastings, Rittenhouse

Seated: Mrs. Crawford, Eckberg.

• GRATITUDE of BHS pupils for many years to come will go to this year's Board of Education for undertaking the responsibility of the new wing. The Board, consisting of A. Ralph Eckberg, president; Charles Rittenhouse, vice-president; Mrs. Henry Crawford, clerk; E. Reed Schutt, and Warren Hastings, has demonstrated admirable foresight and planning in expanding our facilities.

Rae Clark is attorney for the board and Robert Morrow, treasurer.

• The purpose of the Parent-Faculty group is to attempt to bridge the gap between the home and school. With this in mind, an enthusiastic organization has sponsored such things as a parent-student forum, faculty tea, the "Shindig," a college entrance forum, and the annual sports banquet.

Co-presidents for the year were Mr. and Mrs. Don Hershey. Miss Margaret Young and Robert Hynes were faculty representatives.

Standing: William Kelly, John Whittle, Joseph Boon, Robert Hynes, Arthur Harris, Reverend Theodore Trost, Donald Hershey. Seated: Mrs. Boon, Mrs. Whittle, Mrs. Hershey, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Trost, Mrs. Hynes.

Lois Riegel

Richard Savage
Boys' Adviser

- THE EDUCATIONAL background of Brighton teachers is excellent with practically all members having masters degrees or taking work to complete them.

An in-service course this year offered by the Board of Education was appreciated by all teachers.

Spinning in Realms of Knowledge

• SLOWLY we've come to the realization that Brighton has not only one of the best, but just about the nicest teaching staff possible. It was expanded this year with the addition of Miss Betty Lyman, Mrs. Mabel McCleary, Hugh Miner, David Smith, Donald Van Vechten, Carl Witzel, John Lembo, and Harold Kruger.

Mrs. Ruth Lucy
Girls' Adviser

Keeping the Orbits in Order

Top left, standing: Warren Ghyzel, Fred Fleming, William McCarthy, Ray Van der Malle, Bart Kiernan, William Gerber, David Jock, Charles Steffen. Seated: Alex Tuper, Bert Weterings, Mrs. Frieda Meader, Mrs. Clara Pelletier, Mrs. Mary Weterings, Mrs. Alice Brown, Joseph Slack. In circle, right: Joseph Slack, chief custodian. Bottom, in circle: Miss Olive Fay, cafeteria manager; Right: Mrs. Frances Miller, Mrs. Barbara Ward, Mrs. Elsie Pratt, David Frohm, Mrs. Dorothy Peterson, Mrs. Violet Garlow, Mrs. Rose Baldwin, Mrs. Anna McKeon, Mrs. Mary Weterings.

• A NEW BASEBALL diamond and fenced-off athletic field are only two of the projects completed by Joe Slack and his able maintenance crew. Overcoming all obstacles, they also manage to keep corridors spotless and grounds beautifully groomed.

Come rain or shine, Brighton's everfaithful bus drivers are always ready to chauffeur students to and from games, in addition to everyday tasks using our seven-bus fleet for their routine daily runs to all parts of Brighton.

Lunches served at Brighton are aimed at providing a varied and nutritious meal for all students at a minimum cost. To do this, the cafeteria staff uses the best produce, prepared in sanitary conditions under a trained dietitian, Miss Olive Fay. Triple-rich Cornell bread, made according to scientific research, has been added to student fare this year.

Juniors look to June 1953

• FINDING ourselves in need of a treasury booster, we hit upon the idea of a magazine sale. With the $400 net, we financed the Junior Prom, "Stairway to the Stars," May 10, under the general chairmanship of Ann Strobel.

Jim Zonneville represented us in the sports field, canning 211 points to set a new JV scoring record. Fred Trost was elected chaplain of all New York State Hi-Y's at the annual conference at Albany. Serving as Student Council officers from the Junior Class were Phil McNall and Tim Hanley.

Ross Pattison led the class as president; Ann Strobel, vice-president; Virginia Beugless, secretary; and Pierce Webb, treasurer.

Right: Student Council officers paved the way this year with Tim Hanley, secretary; Phil McNall, treasurer; Barbara Jager, veep; and Paul Lewis, president. Bottom: "Kandy Kane Kapers" was the annual Christmas feature of the Student Council.

• STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS were elected under the new electoral system inaugurated May 1, 1951.

Highlight of the year was organization of an activity point system to help students plan extra-curricular activities. Selling coke at basketball games, and calling plays with the public address system were only a few of the many beneficial activities of Student Council members.

The Kandy Kane Kaper Christmas dance radiated good spirit with a giant fir in the center of the gym, while the Brighton fair raised money for the annual sports banquet. Each homeroom managed a booth, ranging from a food booth to "Little Reno."

An assembly reporting the year's activities, including the lunchroom duty project taken over by Student Council members, preceded election of officers in May.

• SENORITAS AND SENORES swung into a Mexican tempo at their first meeting with movies of Miss Perrin's recent south-of-the-border trip. Members gained a better understanding of Spanish ways and customs through the experience of a native of Peru, who spoke to us in Spanish. Carole Hallman, Virginia MacQueen, and Dick Cornell showed movies and told about their recent journeys to Mexico and South America.

Breaking of several pinatas and a dance highlighted the cena at Irondequoit. Following a turkey dinner, entertainment from Brighton was provided by Luanne Zahniser, Beverly Proper, Virginia MacQueen, Barbara Jager, Pat DeVoll, and Bob Faulkner.

Presiding over Spanish Club affairs was Sue Hall, assisted by Carole Hallman, Beverly Proper, and Roger Friedlander. Old hands by now, Spanish Club members Sue Reinhard, Jean Clarridge and Marcia Conway were the first Brighton students to take fourth year Spanish.

The year's activities were climaxed by a festival at Cutler Union April 26.

Comment allez-vous?

• WITH THE election of officers on the third Monday of October, "Le Cercle Francais," swung into a full program of fun with French to promote further interest in France and the French language. Our program included Miss Young's slides and movies of her trip, a Christmas party, an assembly and a banquet.

Our Christmas party saw us singing, dramatizing "The Night Before Christmas" in French, entertaining, and eating. We were especially pleased with a cake donated by Herman's for the occasion.

Our main project was the assembly in February. This hour-long display of talent included singing, piano playing, amusing skits such as the well-remembered hat-shop scene, the "Christian" cannibal with six wives, and a magician's show all in the French fashion.

A large enthusiastic group journeyed to the Inter-High French Banquet at Madison in April where we dined and were entertained in "Parisian" surroundings.

Our officers for the year were Barney Hamilton, president; Jim Mofsky, Ginger Van Horn, Judy Madigan, and Bob Long.

- VARIED ACTIVITIES of the Latin Club were directed by Consuls D'Maris Scott and Ann Strobel. Aedile or social chairman was Mary Warren; Quaestor or treasurer, Janet Wiig; Scriba or secretary, Sue Streitmatter. Pierce Webb edited the Latin newspaper "Mercurius," guided by enthusiastic adviser, Mrs. Lillian Follansbee.

Latin students were entertained at a Christmas party with Christmas carols sung in Latin and an original skit by Bob Critchley and Bentley Bisbee.

In February new members were initiated in a ceremony similar to the ancient Roman custom of sending captives under the yoke, two spears placed upright with a bar across the top at a height that forced "captives" to bend to get through. After repeating "Civis Romanus sum," meaning "I am a Roman citizen," members were considered full-fledged.

The annual Roman Banquet in the spring resembled ancient banquets consisting of several courses and an obvious lack of forks and butter. First-year students were serving slaves, and entertainment was continuously provided throughout the meal.

Deadlines, Headlines, Picture

• ARMED with rulers, pencils, and terrific ideas, the "CROSSROADS" staff invaded the "Trap" room in September to drive toward the 1952 edition. Under the guidance of Arlene Eichen, editor; Jean Clarridge, associate; and Mrs. Gertrude O'Donnell, adviser, the staff rolled along to an early spring deadline.

Arranging all senior pages, collecting data on each of the seniors, and general supervision of all class pages was Joan Frank, class editor. Virginia Glienke, assisted by Kayla Achter took over features; and Bill Darcy, clubs.

Paul Lewis was chief boss of the sports section and Joyce Paul, of girls' sports.

Shooting pictures almost daily was Jim Miller, first with the staff camera, and later with a new Speed Graphic, purchased this year. Myron Furman directed much of the photography assisted by Mike Cole, Bob Rowe, Bob Phinney, and Ernie Greppin.

Bringing in the cash was Bob Miller, business manager, assisted by Dave Henderson and Ken Hickman.

Responsible for the cover of this book is David Smith, art teacher who designed and executed the finished plan.

Top: B. Miller, Business Manager; A. Eichen, Editor; J. Clarridge, Associate; J. Frank, Class Editor; M. Furman, J. Miller, Photography Editors. Bottom: Henderson, K. Hickman, Business; P. Lewis, J. Paul, Sports; B. Darcy, Clubs; K. Achter, V. Glienke, Features.

• ALL-AMERICAN and All-New York ratings were again garnered by the 1951-52 Trapezoid staff under the capable direction of Mary Louise Haines, editor-in-chief; Kayla Achter and Mary Gay Halbleib, associates; and Merwyn Kroll, sports editor.

The annual Empire State School Press Association in Syracuse drew twelve enthusiastic editors who heard, among other notable speakers, Milton Caniff, cartoonist.

An unequaled total of $450 for the March of Dimes was turned in as a result of students' generosity and faculty cooperation in a drive sponsored by the staff.

Climax of the year was the annual publications banquet in April where six editors won star awards. Journeymen awards went to Joan Frank, Jean Clarridge, Myron Furman, and Paul Lewis; and certificates for meritorious service were presented to: Rita Feldman, Pierce Webb, Myron Furman, and Joyce Paul.

a Trail for Tomorrow

• FORMATION of a new club, Theta chapter highlighted the past year of Hi-Y. Under the capable direction of adviser Bob Dickinson and president Ted Dewey, Theta quickly joined the true fellowship of Hi-Y.

Fred Trost, Gamma, was elected chaplain of the Genesee Valley Hi-Y Council, later chaplain of the Monroe Hi-Y Council, and finally brought honor to Brighton by being elected chaplain of the New York State Hi-Y Council.

In September, students enjoyed the "Back to School Dance" presented by the combined Brighton Hi-Y's; the annual Turkey Trot, a Brighton, Monroe, and Pittsford Hi-Y affair; the fourth annual Gamma Ball; and the Trophy Dance sponsored through the efforts of the Brighton and Monroe Hi-Y clubs.

Presentation of the Sigma trophy to Paul Lewis as the outstanding senior boy, making up Christmas baskets and toys for the underprivileged, collecting clothes for Korea, painting the football bleachers, and cleaning the gym after basketball games were just a few of the many service projects typical of Hi-Y accomplishments.

Sigma dominated the Brighton end of the athletic program set up by boys' work secretary Ray Overmire, by beating all other Brighton clubs in both volley ball and basketball.

• UNIFIED under the name Tau Omega Psi, junior and senior Y-Teens were led by Barbara Ziegler, freshman and sophomore Beta Chi Deltas by Linda Balling, and eighth grades by Mary Ellen Humes. Inter-Club Council representatives were Barbara Whittle, Debby Miller, and Carol Stephens.

Meeting at the YWCA every other Thursday with adviser Miss Frances Campbell, junior and senior girls initiated various service projects and sponsored a speaker from McCurdy's fashion board.

Y-Teens Move to New Quarters

• FRESHMAN AND SOPHOMORE service consisted of making stocking dolls and taking charge of the check-room at all home basketball games. With the help of adviser Miss Gail Brewer, they organized the Dogpatch Drag, a Sadie Hawkins dance in February.

Eighth graders made scrapbooks and toured the new YWCA with Miss Marian Handel and Miss Lois Riegel, advisers.

The Brain's the Thing!

• CARRYING out the National Honor Society principles of scholarship, leadership, character and service, members sold apples to hungry spectators at football games, and tempted parents with baked goods after PTA meetings to aid the chapter's scholarship fund.

Irene Bechard, president; Bruce Patton, vice-president; Lois Howk, secretary; and Robert Long, treasurer, led the original thirteen inductees and sixteen new members in such service projects as sale of TB Christmas seals, messenger service in office, and ticket selling at basketball games.

Political Science is Their Meat

• ONE OF Brighton's newest clubs, the Social Science Forum was originated to promote interest in developments of a political nature. The first club project was to represent Brighton at a mock nominating convention at Franklin High School, with Mark Feldman as BHS chairman.

Starting with twelve active members, juniors and seniors, the club is open to all students. Raymond Marling, adviser; Pierce Webb, president; Mark Feldman, vice-president; Allan Cameros, secretary; and Walter Westfall, treasurer, hope the Forum will continue to interest social studies enthusiasts.

Back row: L. Edwards, Van Neil, Fay, Hickman, Faulkner, J. Glickman, Loveland. Third row: Reinhard, Steinkamp, Roberts, Boon, Kendall, Sweeney, O'Brien, Grunert. Second row: Kemp, Clarridge, Williams, Buckert, Weiss, Phillipsen, Hallman. First row: Mrs. Ruth Lucy, Patton, Howk, Bechard, Long, Van Dussen. • BOOK WEEK in November with the theme "New Horizons with Books," started a year of active interest in books for the combined Book Review and Library Clubs, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Rice and Miss Margaret Young, advisers.

Amber Dean, favorite local author of mystery novels, started the year's program with a review of "August Incident," her latest book. Mrs. William Hawley introduced members to "The President's Lady" by Irving Stone, and Mrs. Anne Mattheis brought to life "The Magnificent Century" by Thomas Costain.

Student participation became an increasingly important part of the clubs this year with two programs devoted to reviews by club members Caroleigh Kemp, Alma Roberts, Janet Wiig, Marilyn Hull, and Marcia Conway.

Ruth Solomon headed the group as president; Rita LaRocca was vice-president; Marilyn Hill, secretary; and Pat Wilson, treasurer.

- FROM SUNNY Spain, with flashing señoritas, to Napoleon and the Battle of Waterloo, the Visual Aids Corps transformed classrooms into an eternal playground or a blood-stained battlefield.

Advised by Robert Collins, with Lowell Paxson, president; Bob Long, vice-president in charge of instruction; Harold Wickman and Wally Westfall, vice-presidents in charge of equipment; and secretary-treasurer Dave Ross showed almost 300 films concerning all subjects throughout the year.

- JUNIOR CHEMISTS, organized into a regular club this year, met regularly to complement their daily class work and to work out experiments under the guidance of Mr. Kruger. Bill Leist, George Gulick, Bruce Laumeister, Jim Glasow, Larry Edwards, Myron Furman, Harold Grunert, John Gibaud made up the group.

• A NORWEGIAN immigrant family in "I Remember Mama" furnished the theme for the Harlequins' major production of the year. Sue Kendall as Mama, David Henderson as Papa, and Judy Buckert as Katrin starred, while Bill Darcy as Uncle Chris and Aunts Jean Clarridge, Judy Benz and Judy Ware finished out the adult Hanson family.

Janet Wiig, Peggy Kelly, Al Brown and Jim Goldman constituted the family offspring, and Phil Nader, Joan Rosenthal, Ken Halaby, Dorothy Treash, Nancy Ade, Gene Brown, and George Ungerer completed the list of supporting players.

Harlequins formed a base club for those wishing to join Thespians and elected Judy Benz, president; Sally Stephens, vice-president; Ann McGuire, secretary; Barbara Whittle, treasurer; and Nancy Calderwood, keeper of the book. Paul Knoke, recent addition to BHS faculty, captained this year's dramatic group very successfully.

Constellations Lighted Our Stage

• ENTHUSIASTICALLY DIRECTED by Paul Knoke, dramatics adviser, Thespian officers Marcia Conway, Judy Buckert, Jo Anne Boon, David Henderson and Jean Clarridge planned activities of Brighton's dramatic nucleus, the National Thespian Society.

"The High Window," a modern psychological drama, started off the year on a promising note.

Bob Long, stage manager and faithful behind-the-scenes worker of all stage productions, starred in a Thespian-produced theater-in-the-round, "A Sunny Morning," with Rita Feldman, Alan Ziegler, and Janet Phillips, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Thespian play "The High Window" was presented in the fall with Dick Bangs, Nancy Kaltreider, Rita Feldman, Dave Henderson, and Sue Kendall.

"Submerged", a one-act play presented by senior boys, starred Harold Grunert, Phil Paris, Roger Friedlander, Bruce Laumeister, Peter Wendt, and Peter Warren.

Back row: Van Ness, Schlotzhauer, Mathews, B. Williams, Cromarty, R. Harvie, Combs. Sixth row: M. Williams, Rawcliffe, Dunkman, M. Peterson, Schubert, Gibaud, S. • "I HEAR Singing But There's No One There" is a hit show tune that certainly couldn't be applied to Brighton High school this year. The Girls Chorus under the direction of Phillip Kaufman, assisted by Mrs. Schoettle, added new life to school assemblies.

For the Thanksgiving program the group presented the Fred Waring arrangement of "Lallytoddum," and joined the Boy's Chorus to sing "The Thanksgiving Hymn." At Christmas the group assisted with the Harlequin production of "The Child Jesus."

Crawling out of hibernation, we concentrated our attention to the annual Spring Concert with the featured number "Can't

You Dance the Polka?"

The Monroe County Music Festival, a song fest with other area schools, ended a profitable year.

Jazz music, the swing and sway of yesterday, was brought to Brighton through films shown at Music Club meetings under the direction of Philip Kaufman. Mary Williams, president, Dick Kenyon, vice president, Betsy Dunkman, secretary, and program chairman Pat Collier, as officers, assisted Mr. Kaufman in preparing this and other educational programs.

Numerous activities, among which were talent assemblies and an annual concert, kept members busy all year.

Sweeter Notes Were

• PLAYING for basketball games, assemblies, concerts, the sports banquet, and senior graduation were included in Brighton High School's band activities. James Cahill, director, and officers Paul Lewis, Bob Webber, Judy Benz, Don Wiig, and John Gibaud led the band through a busy year.

Provisions concerning new ideas, techniques, and opportunities for students to play popular modern arrangements and learn the practices and procedures of professional groups, were incorporated into rehearsals of the dance band. Under guidance from James Cahill, instructor, and Joe Gallivan, the dance band completed the season's plans successfully.

Never Heard

• A GROWING and improved orchestra is beginning to show results of all the string work in the grade school. For the first time, the group attended the Monroe County Music festival held at Penfield this year. Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies were brightened by such selections as the "Syncopated Clock" and "Jazz Pizzacato." Other selections popular with students included: "Russian Chorale," "Serenade," Excerpts from the "Meistersinger," Bizet's "Intermezzo" and the "Mexican Overture."

Climax of the year was the annual spring concert where they accompanied the combined choruses in "America, My Wondrous Land."

Beauty in the Making

• GUIDED by David Smith, director, Art Club enjoyed such programs as ceramics, photographs, art movies, an outdoor sketching trip, and a visit to a sculptor's studio. Officers Toby Susswein, Nancy Ade, Jonatha Gibaud, and Bonnie Bedford inaugurated what they hoped to be a new and better club.

The club boasts many award winners in the Scholastic Art Exhibit, including Karen Levin, Judy Stalker, Gail Freeman, and Pat Collier.

Working on clay models are: Bonnie Bedford, Judy Stalker, Corinne Bryant, Nancy Ade, Patsy Haines, Toby Susswein, president.

Station WBHS

• ALL FEARS of microphones vanished for Radio Club members this year because of skits required of each member at monthly meetings. With Dave Henderson as president, the club presented a mock radio broadcast in a January assembly program. Judy Madigan was secretary and Hank Greenwald, treasurer.

"Western Satire in Radio Club assembly included Barbara Jager, Mary Jane Hastings and Peter French.

Eaglets Learn to Soar

• With projects which included everything from gliders to gas models, the Aeronautics Club under the guidance of Mr. John Cox, "buzzed on its way."

Ken Hickman was president and David Whitbeck, secretary-treasurer.

To round out their activities of the year, a meet, open to all enthusiasts, was held in June.

Receiving instruction in model airplane building from Mr. Cox are Ulrich, Whitbeck, Werner, Hickman, Lebedecker, Cox, Valmore.

• STAGGERED by some seventeen assorted injuries to key performers throughout the fall campaign, Coach Etsy Reifsteck's gridders set a torrid pace in the wintergreen-and-bandage circuit, but succumbed to a runner-up spot in the Central Western Football Conference. Fairport, East Rochester, and Webster sliced the championship melon three ways.

Baron cleatmen opened the season on a cheerful note as they blanked Brockport 20-0 in an arc light encounter.

Playing before a capacity crowd on a rain-drenched field, Baron charges wound up on the short end of a 14-13 verdict with the Monroe Redjackets.

Local gridders dropped their second successive one-point decision in a week as Webster rallied to topple the Barons, 20-19.

Blue and White forces reversed the tables on the opposition as they edged Canandaigua 14-13 on the victor's field.

Operating from the double wingback, Hal Grunert passed and ran for two touchdowns as the Barons pulled a 20-13 upset win over East Rochester. The following week Brighton gridmen hit the road and suffered a 34-0 thumping from the Fairport penant-bound express. John Price and Joe Strumph hit paydirt as the Winton Road boys jolted Newark, 13-7.

Coach Reifsteck's eleven concluded the successful five-won, three-lost season with a resounding 32-6 triumph over Irondequoit.

• BARON LINEMEN included lanky Jim Zonneville and blond Bob Folwell at the wings. Inner posts were shared by Paul "Creeper" Baxter and sophomore Sandy Gradinger. Bill Dengler, team high scorer, held down the center forward spot.

Blue and White halfbacks were seen in the form of Dick Braun, Dave Clunies, Rudy Nessel, and Tom Liebschutz.

Defense was attended to by Bob Faulkner and Jim Glasow at fullbacks, and Phil Paris and Jim Rodman in the nets.

• WITH HABIT-FORMING effect, Brighton's Barons continued to dominate the Monroe County Class A soccer championship.

Having had their fabulous win streak snapped the previous season, the Blue and White started out in search of sectional glory. After early season wins over Irondequoit, Spencerport, and Hilton, the Barons were upset by the Golden Knights of Pittsford. Decisions over Brockport twice, Irondequoit, and Honeoye Falls gave Brighton the right to face the city kingpins, Marshall, in the sectionals. The Jurists rose to the occasion, however, and handed the locals a 3-2 setback.

Hynesmen Tasted Victory

• BARON LINEMEN included lanky Jim Zonneville and blond Bob Folwell at wings. Inner posts were shared by Paul "Creeper" Baxter and sophomore Sandy Gradinger. Bill Dengler, team high scorer, held down the center forward spot.

Helping support the line as halfbacks were Dick Braun, Dave Clunies, Tom Leibschutz, and Rudy Nessel. Jim Glasow and Bob Faulkner as fullbacks, and Phil Paris and Jim Rodman as goalies provided a staunch defense.

Others who saw action were Dick Jacob-stein, Lowell Paxson, Ralph Van Peursem, Sandy Heumann, and Jerry Mathews.

With cagey Rolf Toepfer as their coach, the freshman soccer team climaxed a successful season. The squad gained valuable experience in scrimmages with the varsity and numbered as their victims East, Spencerport, Irondequoit, and East Bloomfield. Team members included Frank Relin, Bill Scheer, Stan Levin, Sandy Heumann, Irving Heyman, Dennis Kitzman, Jerry Mathews, Harvey Edelman, Bob Powell, Charlie Cook, and Bill Francis.

Tense moments before the Brockport game which turned out to be a victory.

Harriers Captured Crown

• SECTIONAL CHAMPIONS for the second consecutive year, the Blue and White, spearheaded by Captain Barry Brown, first Brighton runner to finish in the number-one spot, were proud possessors of the Section V New York State Cross Country Championship.

With one of the lowest totals in sectional history, runners placed Barry Brown, Paul Steese, and Burke Armstrong in the first seven. Steese and Armstrong placed sixth and seventh to garner individual NYSPHSAA's, while Pete Warren and Bill Kelly rounded out the top five.

Hill and Dalers nailed down first-place honors in the Oakfield Inter-sectional meet which found the Brightonians gaining revenge over Amherst, who had previously provided the Hillsmen with their lone defeat of the season. This was only the fourth time in three years that the Hillsmen have lost in cross country competition.

Barry Brown became the first Brighton runner ever to go through an entire season without being defeated by an opposing team runner. Brown, together with Burke Armstrong, formed one of the strongest 1-2 duos Brighton has seen.

Cross country letter winners were Barry Brown, Pete Warren, Tom Kuhns, Hiland Fairbanks, Burke Armstrong, Bill Kelly, Paul Steese, and Ross Pattison.

• CALL IT what you like—a poor year, a mediocre one, or even an exceptionally good season, the basketball team is to be applauded for its accomplishments. A new coach, Carl Witzel, an experienced, well balanced starting five, and plenty of bench strength was considered by local sport analysts a winning formula for the Blue and White in Monroe County Class A competition. The Twelve Cornersmen got off to a fast start knocking Monroe and Brockport off in succession. Then, the roof fell in, and Witzelmen found themselves on the short end of their next four of six engagements.

Real champions are not only winners but also men or teams which can be knocked to the ground and again rise still fighting. In this way Witzel and his boys played the second half of county contention. Although dropping two tight ball games to Monroe and Spencerport at the start of the second half, Brighton cagers avenged their earlier defeats suffered at the hands of Pittsford, Webster, and Fairport by outscoring the three opponents by a total margin of 76 points. East Rochester again proved a stumbling block as they whipped the locals 55-40.

Phil Paris, all-county selection for the past two years, utilizing his deadly set and driving layup shots was top scorer for Brighton compiling a total of 236 counters, for an average of 14.8 points per outing. The rebounding and scoring of Larry Edwards, who found himself occupying a starting berth after the illness of Joe Strumph, was a mainstay in Carl Witzel's offense. Tony O'Brien, cool-headed field general, found himself midway through the season hitting consistently on outside sets. Dynamite in the form of Bobby Folwell proved to be a thorn in the side of opposing teams. Work horse Jack Price was recognized for his stellar defensive play. Rounding out the squad were seniors Jack Atkin, Paul Baxter, George Ungerer, Jim Glasow, and Bill Dengler. Juniors included: Fred Trost, Phil McNall, Doug Whalen, Ralph Van Peurse, Chris Mills, and Pete Jones.

1951-52 Varsity Basketball Scores

BHS		BHS
39	Monroe	33	53 Brockport
67	Brockport	39	40 Monroe
41	Pittsford	55	38 Spencerport
65	Spencerport	40	62 Pittsford
35	Fairport	38	62 Irondequoit
40	E. Rochester	48	40 E. Rochester
49	Webster	64	70 Webster
70	Irondequoit	41	71 Fairport

• UNDER THE master guidance of Coach Bob Hynes, Junior Barons annexed 17 successive victories giving this school its first undefeated basketball season. By virtue of a 86-20 trouncing of Irondequoit, Hynes' five established a new scoring high for a single game. Amassing a total of 1031 points, the Blue and White squad averaged 60.6 points per engagement.

Chiefly responsible for the successes of the Brighton club were Rudy Nessel, a potent scoring threat; Fred Trost, whose one-handed shots and board work proved highly invaluable to Hynes' cagers; Bernard Heumann, pivot ace; Sandy Gradinger, a constant playmaker; Jimmy Zonneville, also a static point getter, Alan Hershey, an aggressive, elusive ballhandler; and 6 foot - 5 inch Jim Crawford, whose height presented a might of a problem to opposing teams' "tall men".

Volleyball

- BOWING to Canandaigua in the sectionals, Brighton netmen were eliminated from the finals, in which Corning took top honors. The vanquished Baron squad was then out-netted by a faculty crew of ten local classroom stars in a best-of-three game series.

Back row: Miller, Kidd, Sandvik, Jacobstein.
Front: Rupert, Grunert, Clunies, Laumeister, Coach Marling.

ATIT

- PACED by Ken Halaby, who twanged the twines for 101 points for the league-leading Keefics, the A league All-Trapezoid Intra-mural Team showed a well balanced squad. Highlighting the season was a game against the faculty, won by the faculty 60-53.

"B" league balloting was swayed by the Rebels whose starting five was selected. In a game with the frosh of the Jayvees, the ATIT, lost 36 to 22.

Swimming

- BARON MERMEN placed fourth in Section V competition, defeating teams from Hornell, and East Rochester, but losing to Canandaigua, Irondequoit, and Geneva. In season finmen downed Charlotte and lost to Canandaigua and Irondequoit.

Archery

● CAREFULLY aiming bows and arrows, boys defeated girls in an archery contest in the fall, supervised by adviser, Mrs. Laura Bacon. Approximately 12 boys and 16 girls participated in the competition for National Archery Association awards presented in the spring.

Front: Behrmann, Gordon-Smith, Short, Solarek.
Standing: Langthorn, Garlow, VandeMar, Hallock, Gross, Stegler.

Leaders' Corps

● DISPLAYING supreme muscular co-ordination and timing, the leaders corps, under the guidance of Coach Etsy Reifsteck, tumbled for the spring sports awards assembly. Work on the parallel bars was demonstrated by George Ungerer, Doug Whalen, Alan Ross, Bob Kidd, and Jerry Ross, County Class B tumbling champion.

Back row: R. Smith, Ross, Dewey, E. Hershey, Wendt, Diuguid, Peters, Hopps, Grunert, Kidd.
Second row: D. Whalen, Ross, Halaby, McQuat, G. Ungerer, Quinn, Mills.
First row: Ashton, Thompson, Ferguson, Dick Whalen, Liebschutz, Skaddan, Powell, Kingston, Moynihan, Mr. Reifsteck.

Sports Banquet

● HIGH POINT of activity in all sports is the annual Sports Banquet in March, sponsored by the Parent-Faculty group. Under the chairmanship of Donald Hershey, the affair this year drew a record crowd of over 700 athletes, fans, and parents. Elmer Burnham and Lou Alexander, U. of R. coaches were principal speakers.

Barons Loaded the Bases

Coach Bob Collins' crew was comprised mainly of sophomores and juniors. Only Barry Brown, outergardener; Fred Trost, initial sacker; and Sandy Gradinger, shortstop, performed with the varsity last year.

Paris, all-county last season, provided one of the best league outfielders and slugged the ball at a .300 plus clip the two previous years. His slick fielding and heady base running make him a stand-out in any circuit.

Smooth fielding helped make Trost a good first baseman, and his batting also has shown marked improvement. Barry Brown got his real chance to make good, and Sandy Gradinger, after a summer of Legion ball, added spark to the lineup.

Pete Zonneville, zany curve-balling right-hander, and Jim Zonneville, signal caller, formed the first brother battery ever to perform in Baron spangles. Also vying for front-line pitching duties were Ross Pattison, Doug Whalen, Gordon Hopps, John Fay, and Jack Sher, while Bruce Proper and Ralph Van Peurse helped out behind the plate.

Sophomores dotted the infield, as Alan Hershey guarded the hot corner, and Sandy Gradinger covered shortstop. Posing a problem was the keystone sack, where Lee Wight, Rudy Nessel, and Merwyn Kroll competed with catchers Zonneville and Van Peurse.

Filling out the team were George Gulick, Jim Crawford, Gary Hopps, Rob Trost, and Dave Clunies.

With the addition of Fairport, the Monroe County Class A wheel became an eight-team circuit. As in the past, Webster, East Rochester, Irondequoit, Hilton, Brockport, and Spencerport also provided opposition. The league, however, does not enter a team in sectional competition.

Cinders . . . Their Orbit

• FOR THE fourth consecutive year, Brighton cindersmen were crowned Monroe County track champions. Seven runners also scored decisive triumphs in defeating Madison, city champs, in a dual meet, and capturing sectional 440 relay laurels for the third successive year.

Highlights of the 1951 season found the 440 relay team of Pede Rupert, Hal Grunert, Jack Murphy, and Fred Tomlinson earning Brighton's only blue ribbon in sectional competition. Ace broad jumper, Jack Murphy leaped twenty-one feet, one and a half inches to set a new county mark, and Stan Shafer placed second in the quarter mile for the second successive year in the sectionals.

Dave Miller and Dick Braun combined to form what was considered by many to be the greatest hurdling duo Brighton has ever had. The pair placed 1-2 in county competition and only bad spills by both prevented them from repeating in the sectionals.

Carrying the Blue and White in 1951 were such ace lettermen as sprint star Harold Grunert, Pede Rupert, and Jim Miller. Pete Moynihan, star sophomore sensation, provided experience in the half mile, while Dick Braun returned to compete in the low hurdles. Adding strength to field events were veterans Bruce Laumeister and Roger Friedlander in the shot put, while Jerry Ross and Dave McQuat held down pole-vaulting positions.

Middle row: J. Gallivan, K. Halaby, P. Warren, R. Friedlander, B. Laumeister, J. Ross, B. Faulkner, J. Price.

Bottom: J. Murphy, H. Grunert, S. Tomlinson, P. Rupert, G. Hopps, J. Miller.

Back: Long, Loveland, Wiig. Front: Cronin, Minor,
Tony O'Brien, Joe Haefner, Bill Dengler,
Mr. Marling

With Racquet and Club

• Faced with the loss of sectional singles champ Len Treash and court general Rog Batty, Coach John Cox found himself with a rebuilding task at hand.

Racquetteers fought to uphold the Brighton tradition of possessing county or sectional champions for the past six years. "Killer" Cox's boys matched points with Lyons, East Rochester, Brockport, Clyde, and Canandaigua before preparing for the sectionals in June.

• CHIRPING BIRDS brought with them the annual call of the links for Brighton golfers.

Led by City and sectional champ, Joe Haefner and city semi-finalist Tony O'Brien, Blue and White linksmen competed again in city loop competition.

Under the direction of Ray Marling, cagey divot doctor, the squad also traded putts with Dansville, DeSales of Geneva, Pittsford, Olean, East Rochester, and the city champs of Syracuse.

Other team members included Bill Dengler, Hank Greenwald, Alan Cameros, and Roger Harvie.

On the Feminine Side

• TWO GIRLS' LEADERS clubs again proved a valuable asset to Brighton's sports program. Leadership, sportsmanship, outstanding sports ability and scholastic standing are necessary qualifications for membership. Besides assisting Mrs. Blair in eighth grade gym classes, the girls' duties include whistle-blowing, clock-watching, and score-keeping for all intramural contests. Clubs played hostess to Monroe and Pittsford girls at a volleyball play day March 25.

Left, back row: Streitmatter, Collier, O'Keefe, Rawcliffe, Cook, Pike. Third row: Hoesterey, D. Miller, A. Brown, McKinnon. Second row: J. Miller, McCleary, Shapiro, Farnham, Blair, Boynton. Front: Le Fevre, Wayman, Maston, Oldroyd, S. Brown. Absent: L. Balling. Right: Joyce McCleary attempts a goal as Marcia O'Keefe, Barbara Blair and Anita Brock move in.

"Coaches" Dotty Treash and Judy Buckert give some pointers to senior soccer team. SENIOR LEADERS—Top row: Wiig, Clarridge, Young, Zelomek, Treash, Butler, Kaltreider, Steinkamp. Third row: Scott, D. Miller, Goodman, Boon, M. Peterson, Ziegler. Second: Harper, Beugless, Hall, Mrs. Blair, Herrman, Warren, Van-Dussen, Williams. Front: LaRocca, R. Lyons, Whittle, Howk, Haines, Lawrence. Absent: Hastings, Buckert, Kingsley.

• OLD MAN WEATHER made rules in soccer by unleashing snow and rain to prevent completion of inter-class play-offs scheduled for early November. The GAA council solved the problem by dividing points. At the time of cancellation, Louise Herrman's eleven were in first place, while Lois Howk's seniors, after fighting their way through a three-way tie to get into inter-class, held second place with Marcia O'Keefe's sophs.

Top, left: Ellen Gillette watches junior girls fight for that ball. Top, middle: Dorothy Young displays form which made her the Foul Shooting Champion. Top, right: Sally Zelomek's basketball inter-class winners. Back: S. Miller, Zelomek, Boon. Center: Paul and Clarridge. Front: Howk and Feol.

• THE BASKETBALL SEASON was filled with fierce competition and thrills as 307 girls played a total of 76 games.

Sally Zelomek's seniors took the inter-class crown by trouncing Donna Stam's juniors who took second place. Frosh under Marilyn Aprilano wound up in third place and last place went to Beverly Hasting's sophs.

In first place in basketball honor team play was Jill Harper's powerful juniors who edged Judy Buckert's second place squad 26-

25 in a suspenseful court fray. Ann Hoestery captained sophs into third place honors while Ruth Wolter's frosh trailed last.

The senior honor team traveled to East Rochester February 19 for the annual play-day.

Betsy Crawford's team captured first spot in eighth grade competition.

Dead-eye Dorothy Young swished in 74 of 100 foul shots to win a silver basketball as Foul Shooting Champion.

BOTTOM—Left: Jill Harper and her basketball honor champs. Standing: Whittle, B. Hastings, Scott, Stam, Butler, Harper, D. Miller. Front: Herrman, Strobel, Hofstra. Right: "S-T-R-E-T-C-H Sal". Sally Zelomek gets set to toss one in during senior contest.

Enthusiasm Reigned in the Left: Buck, Peterson, Leibshutz and Alaimo look on while Nancy Goodman, with ball, attempts a shot. Right, Girls' Volleyball. Top row: B. Davidson, Van Dussen, D. Young, Reinhard, M. Hastings. Second row: Warren, Feol, Hall, Pilkington, Regina Lyons.

- "LET'S SERVE" and "assist" became common language in the gym in March and April as we moved into the volleyball season.

Mary Jane Hasting's seniors walked off with the inter-class title by striking Marilyn Peterson's juniors 48-16. Mary Rawcliffe's sophs had second-place berth as juniors took third. Diane Sanford's frosh landed in the cellar but showed lots of fight.

Marcia Mack's team copped first-place laurels in eighth grade tournament play.

Volleyball honor teams have been chosen as we go to press, and are scheduled to play after Easter vacation. With the coming of spring, girls may look forward to softball intramurals and tennis.

Bottom right: "Casey at the bat." Sue Piper, catcher, and Mary Rawcliffe, batting, warm up on the diamond.

World of Girl's Sports

Mrs. Slack and Mrs. Blair survey the soccer scene.

• MARY VAN DUSSEN guided this year's G.A.A. Council in planning activities; Dorothy Young as Veep assisted, while Beverly Kingsley took minutes and Marcia O'Keefe balanced the books. Council members consisting of four seniors, three juniors and two sophomores are elected by their classes.

The big winter event was the G.A.A. Christmas tea, December 18. Mary Jane Hastings donned St. Nick's familiar red suit to present gifts to women faculty members. Singing of Christmas carols was featured, and refreshments were served by the council.

By selling candy at football and basketball games, the Council provides sports awards. Goals of most BHS girls are awards which can be earned by participation in team sports, A's in gym, membership in Leaders' Class, G.A.A. Council, inter-class and honor teams and refereeing games. The numeral requires 125 points, the letter, 200; trophy, 300; and the highest is the 400-point Monroe County Award. All are awarded at the Girls Sports Banquet in early June when the new G.A.A. Council is named.

G.A.A. sports awards, symbols of achievement: class numeral, letter, trophy and Monroe County Award.

Dear zoi,

Lots of luck, love and happiness to my best pal. We sure have had a sweet time this year haven't we? I'll never forget all those famous seven parties will you? I think we did all right for ourselves at the others don't you? As I said to marcial (ack) we ought to get together this summer for a P.T. party - we get so much sleep you know - what a laugh! I sure hope we will get together more often this summer you know we can always think of something to say, just let us sit down tell each to bring a coke as you usually do and nothing can stop us from saying something. You know what we usually talk about. Nope Craig doesn't to many movie stars in Cal. who knows he might have you drying your hair green. Don't get too many wild ideas at camp this summer like streaking your hair. (as if you would ha ha)

I can't wait 'til next fall so we can start on the Silver Horseshoe again. I hope we can work out "what good is a Gal without a Guy"? - I sometimes wonder about that don't you? Of course how many times have I heard it never speak to him again - then down at the end of the hall the next day making up.

Well I sure hope were as much infatuated by each other as we are this year.

Love and Kisses,
Lovingly yours,
Ray

P.S. I sure hope we can be pals all through High School - don't you? again the best of luck to a wonderful gal who deserves everything she gets - just don't ever be like you know ~~your~~ our pet - please - as if anybody could be like her.

your pal,
Ray '52

Dear Zoe,

well, Zoe, you're almost a freshman. I know you'll have a terrific time in high school. To keep up the family tradition you'll have to go out for basketball. So what if you are a girl, I wouldn't let that stop me. As a matter of fact, I think I'll go out for football in the fall. Someone's got to take Hal's place, right? Now that he's graduating, I'd guess you & I will have to start wearing our "steady" sweaters again, O.K.? Well, all right. Don't grow too much this summer. I'll see you in the fall.

Love, your steady, Marilyn EAX

Hi Zoe!

Well kid there is quite a bit I could say but I don't think I better say it in this little book. But believe me kid you are a real terrific gol. All you have to do is just work on that batting and pitching of yours & you will do O.K. Don't get excited either because your strike out. I guess I better say so long now, see you next year. See good Bye

Dear Zoe,

well, Zoe, you will make a terrific freshman. I'll never forget how much fun we all had & how you have just had a whole lot more fun this year. I hope you'll have a great time & a terrific gol. I'll see you next year. Love you 4/22

Dear Zoe,
Roses are red
Violets are blue
Bears like you
say regents, look!
Good luck in all the years to come.
Hope we're both in the same room next year.
Love

Dear Joe,
 We both are a wee bit tall but it is fun. Everyone
 looks up to you.
 I hope someone tall
 turns up soon!
 good luck to a
 real neat kid.

 Bitay

Hi Joe
 Hows my girl - friend. that was quite a party at Mendon
 Ponds wasn't it,
 but guess I better
 give up with Craig
 and all eh?
 Will take care
 of yourself this summer won't ya? (love)
 Jim

Dear Joe
 Well, how's my little ballet dancer. You sure are a terrific and dandig kid. You must take care of the boy this summer and be good. See ya next year. Be good now. Love ya

Dear Joe,
 the best of luck to a real
 'youngie' kid
 ya know's always
 got an answer.
 Love ya,
 'pita

Good Luck to a terrific kid
