PRAYER

God, though this life is but a wraith,
Although we know not what we use,
Although we grope with little faith,
Give me the heart to fight—and lose.

Ever insurgent let me be,
Make me more daring than devout ;
From sleek contentment keep me free,
And fill me with a buoyant doubt.

Open my eyes to visions girt
With beauty, and with wonder lit—
But let me always see the dirt,
And all that spawn and die in it.

Open my ears to music ; let
Me thrill with Spring's first flutes and drums—
But never let me dare forget
The bitter ballads of the slums.

From compromise and things half-done,
Keep me, with stern and stubborn pride ;
And when, at last, the fight is won
God, keep me still unsatisfied.

—LOUIS UNTERMEYER.

- Hymn 1. (524—Gospel Hymns)

Encamped along the hills of light, Ye Christian soldiers rise, And press the battle ere the night Shall veil the glowing skies; Against the foe in vales below, Let all our strength be hurled; Faith is the victory we know, That overcomes the world.	His banner over us is love, Our sword the word of God; We tread the roads the saints above With shouts of triumph trod; By faith, they like a whirlwind's Swept on o'er ev'ry field; [breath The faith by which they conquered Is still our shining shield [Death	To him that overcomes the foe, White raiment shall be giv'n; Before the angels he shall know His name confessed in Heaven; Then onward from the hills of light, Our hearts with love aflame; We'll vanquish all the hosts of night, With Jesus' conquering name.

Hymn 2. (521—Gospel Hymns)

'Tis the hallowed hour of pray'r,
And we trustingly bring
All our doubtings and fears
To our Saviour and King,
For we know that He delights
A glad welcome to give,
And the blessings that we ask for
We shall fully receive.

'Tis the precious hour of pray'r,
And we humbly entreat:
Father, breath the Spirit now,
As we bow at thy feet;
Touch our lips with pow'r of song;
Fill our souls with Thy love;
And bestow the benediction
Of Thy peace from above.

'Tis the sacred hour of pray'r,
Calm as heaven above;
Soul to soul is breathing here
The communion of love;
Every heart is sweetly filled
With a peace most profound;
Oh the place is like to heaven,
Where such true joys abound.

Chorus:

Precious hour of pray'r!
Hallowed hour of pray'r!
Sacred season of communion,
It is sweet to be there.

Hymn 3. (518—Gospel Hymns)

True-hearted: whole hearted, faithful and loyal,
King of our lives, by Thy grace we will be;
Under the standard exalted and royal,
Strong in thy strength, we will battle for Thee.

Chorus:

Peal out the watchword! silence it never!
Song of our spirits, rejoicing and free;
Peal out the watchword! loyal forever!
King of our lives, by Thy grace we will be.

True-hearted, whole hearted, fullest allegiance
Yielding henceforth to our glorious King;
Valiant endeavor and loving obedience,
Freely and joyously now would we bring.

True-hearted, whole-hearted, Saviour all glorious!
Take Thy great power and reign there alone,
Over our wills and affections victorious,
Freely surrendered and wholly Thine own.

Hymn 4. (582—Gospel Hymns)

Yield not to temptation for yielding is sin,
Each victory will help you some other to win;
Fight manfully onward, dark passions subdue,
Look ever to Jesus, He'll carry you through.

Chorus:

Ask the Saviour to help you,
Comfort, strengthen and keep you;
He is willing to aid you;
He'll carry you through.

Shun evil companions, bad language disdain,
God's name hold in rev'rence, nor take it in vain;
Be thoughtful and earnest, kind-hearted and true,
Look ever to Jesus, He'll carry you through.

To him that o'ercometh God giveth a crown,
Thro' faith we shall conquer, though often cast down;
He who is our Saviour, our strength will renew,
Look ever to Jesus, He'll carry you through.

Benediction—The People Sitting and the Choir Singing "Amen"
