EYES EXAMINED, GLASSES ADJUSTED AND REPAIRED

The Land of Toys

"Oh! Mother, Mother, I want a railroad, an airplane, an elephant. "Brother! Brother! Look at that doll over there. That's what I want." "Bah! A doll, Oh well you're a girl." "Here's a Gun, That for me. "Mother, Mother we want the whole Floor."

And so it is with every little boy and girl who comes up the elevator to our toy sections on the fifth floor. The minute they arrive there their eyes grow big with pleasure and astonishment at the outlay of child treasures. And to mothers a smile becomes much sunnier when she sees the, as usual, low Cash prices.

From the Gabel Shop

This is a typical Gabel job, just completed for a prominent Rochesterian. It shows what can be accomplished with an ordinary stock car, with intelligent and painstaking treatment.

The body is equipped with walnut finishing sticks, which have been stained and polished to match the car which is painted a special shade of Greenish Grey.

Equipment includes Victoria Top, lined with cloth to match upholstery and carpets. All mountings are nickel plated, including the smart tonneau windshield.

PROGRAM

For the Benefit of Late Comers

The story of the prologue of "The Rise of Peter Barban" is given here as information necessary to a right understanding of the three acts of the play that follow. The action of the Prologue takes place in the ante-room of the Court House at West Durham, Pa., late on a night in March, 1896. Peter Barban, a poor Italian immigrant, has been on trial for the murder of his wife. Pietro and the woman have been heard quarreling violently. Later Pietro has been discovered on the ground unconscious, covered with blood, grasping a bloody knife. No trace of the woman has ever been found. Questioned, Pietro

DINING CHAIRS

That You Can Depend Upon

Did you ever buy a set of dining room chairs whose joints became loose and wobbly after a short time in use? If so, you won't make the same mistake a second time. You won't make this mistake the first time either if you buy our specially constructed lock-joint dining chair. This chair does not depend upon the glue to hold at the joints, and it costs only slightly more than the ordinary weak chair.

We are showing a complete line of dining chairs, embracing over 150 styles in all the Period and modern designs.

admits that, maddened by his wife's attack on his dog and his baby daughter, he has wrested the knife from her and struck at her. He knows nothing more. The jury brings in a verdict of "not guilty," much to the chagrin of the young district attorney whose first case this is and who has been eager for a conviction. Pietro, freed, cuddles his baby in his arms and wanders out into the night.

Free Check Rooms for cloaks, coats and umbrellas in Lobby, left of Dress Circle Entrance.

Wet Umbrellas not allowed in Orchestra Circle, Orchestra or Balcony.

Parties finding lost articles in any portion of the Theater, will please leave them at the Box Office.

No fees of any kind allowed to ushers or attaches of this Theater.

Patrons will please report to the manager in person or by letter, instances of inattention or misdemeanor on the part of the attaches of this Theater.

Special attention is called to the safety of the Theater. Located on the ground floor with exits on all four sides, provided with an asbestos curtain covering entire proscenium so that in cases of fire on the stage it would be impossible to communicate to auditorium. The Balcony and Gallery have iron stairs on both sides, leading to the walk which together with main entrance built of iron and brick, will be opened at the close of each performance, or sooner if necessary. The side doors in the Orchestra Circle will also be opened at the close of every performance.

The asbestos or fire curtain will be raised upon the entrance of the orchestra. The stage is equipped with water curtain sprinkler system, stand-pipes and coils of hose connected directly with the Holly water service.

Ladies, excepting those occupying seats in the last row, must remove their hats during the performance. It is hoped the ladies will assist us in this respect.
