Endured yet calmly every day,
When due at early hour of morning,
To have to live so far away.*

Cleary, Patrick H.

Immaculate Conception
Ithaca

*In the Koran, 'tis thus scribed, they say,
"Who tooteth not his own horn,—the same
Shall not be tooted"—Be't as it may,
Better, methinks, the silence than the blame.*

Devereaux, William J.

Blessed Sacrament
Rochester

*Say, my friend, did you hear that pin drop?
They say 'twas just across the street,
I thought it must have been a gun-pop,
Bill just left his chair three feet.*

His high office, though respectin',
Strange to say, we envied not.*

GRADUATES

Seeking in the skies—ah! he loved it so—a little bit o' green*

Miller, Harold A.

St. Michael's

*"My kingdom for a page! Mister Chairman",
Oh those memorable words,—now old,
But the verdict of "the Chairman"
And what followed—better left untold.*

Morgan, Lester M.

*Bland his smile, his carriage lofty, his face, at times,
serene,
If we sought him, he, at any hour, with his favorite book was seen.*

*"Though I am young, I scorn to flit
On the wings of borrowed wit".*

Wohlrab, Robert A.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

There still is one more word that we must say:
Both for your patient effort day by day,
That we might share all Christian hopes and fears,
For guidance and for teaching these five years,
A debt of gratitude is ours to-day,
More great than we can ever hope to pay.

Yet with no blush of shame we are content,
Here of such unpaid debt to make acknowledgment,
Since He Whose chosen guides in you we see,
And of Whose chosen we would some day be,
Has said of you that give so freely in His Name,
He will repay ten-fold your merits claim.

LESTER MORGAN
