Patrons of Husbandry

Lecturer's Program

1 9 4 9

Take Time . . .

Take time a kindly deed to do,
Or speak a word of cheer,
Not once, but many times each day
While you are living here.

Take time a gladsome smile to wear,
In each and every place,
A sad heart oft is lighter made,
By a smile on someone's face.

Take time to do the good you can,
As down life's way you fare,
Take time to help each Granger,
His heavy load to bear.

To help make other lives more bright,
More gladsome and sublime.
While you are living here on earth,
Be sure to take the time.

It is with pleasure I present to Patrons the program for 1949.

Fraternally yours,

BERTHA R. HOCKENBERGER,
Lecturer

*We do not know, we cannot see
The wisdom of His ways,
Yet we must trust God's loving hand
In guiding us always.*

*And that through darkest shadows
His kindly light will lead
To give us Faith for every doubt
And strength for every need.*
