

SUPER G.I. SUPPER

O.K. you G.I.'s -- let's all be present and accounted for. OH, NO, it's not retreat formation, in fact it's an easy and desirable way of getting chow with less effort than standing in a chow line.

The DORM SUPPER CLUB has gone to great lengths in an effort to say agin "THANKS FOR A JOB WELL DONE".

The only effort required on our part is to step up to the front desk and say "Count me in on the Supper Club for next Wednesday". In order for the committee to count noses, we will have to put in our say by Monday night, TONIGHT!

Doubtless you will ask, "What's this Supper Club which is sponsoring the dinner?" Will there be any entertainment? The reply to this query is that they are having as a speaker a liason officer who has seen duty in many quarters with both the G.I.'s and the other regular guys who live in the dorm. If you never succeeded in having it done before, maybe the speaker, REV. STEWART, will even punch that card for you.

Don't get the idea that this gathering is limited to returned servicemen. On the contrary, all of the dorm residents are urged to obtain tickets at 85¢ and attend to help honor the guests of the evening.

FALL IN!

ELBERT Q. EASTER,

President of the YM-YW OUTING CLUB, raconteur par excellence, sportsman to out-sport any of the Sports Clubbers, and resident of Niagara Falls until he left his warm home, is in charge of the next O.C. outing on February 10th!

El's home town gives the key to this coming activity, and the huge icicle in his backyard will be viewed by all and sundry. In addition to seeing the winterized Falls, the gang will leave the country and hike to Niagara Glen in Canada.

A chartered bus will make the round trip to the Falls, leaving the 'Y' at 7:30 IN THE MORNING on Sunday and returning before nine in the evening.

Cost of the trip will be - $3.50, payable in advance, and this includes transportation, necessary expenses at the Falls, and refreshments. Each person will have to supply his own two meals which are not included in the above fee.

Reservations are to be made by

Y-ED NITE

Once again it is time to have fun while you learn at the Y-ED NITE. This popular activity of the YM-YW Council is the answer to the need for co-educational as well as recreational activity.

The six weekly meetings in the Spring series, which begins February 12th, are to be held at the Y.W.C.A. starting at 8 P.M. and lasting for an hour and fifteen minutes. They are followed by recreation 'til 11 o'clock.

The courses offered this year are: MARRIAGE BEFORE AND AFTER (limited to 25 registrants) under the leadership of David Crystal, Youth Director of the Family Society; SPENDING YOUR MONEY WISELY (how to buy clothes, cars, insurance, and the other things young people buy) under the capable direction of Cyril E. Fitch, Merchandise Manager of McCurdy's; UNDERSTANDING RACIAL AND NATIONAL MINORITIES (present day racial problems are to be discussed by authorities) with Mrs. Harold Nicely in charge; MUSIC APPRECIATION (how to derive enjoyment from Philharmonic Concerts and radio symphonic hours) with Mrs. Arthur Zuehlke of the Hochstein School of Music directing the course.

At present, elaborate plans are in progress for making the recreational period lots of fun for everybody. Miss Alvira Sarson has already been engaged for one evening to give instruction in the rumba and jitterbugging. There will be square dancing on another evening with instruction by an experienced caller to enable beginners to enjoy the fun. There will be a goodly supply of varied mixers to provide partners for ballroom dancing. Plans call for roller skating plus numerous other means to make for an enjoyable evening.

Plan on having some fun while obtaining practical knowledge. REGISTER N-O-W and be certain of getting in the course you want to take.

The fee is - $2.00 - for 'Y' MEMBERS; $3.00 - for Non Members. Dorm residents on the committee include - Rengert, Sawabe, and Boland; Contact one of them and enroll N-O-W!

T-O-N-I-G-H-T and latecomers cannot ride on top of the bus because of the State laws. Inside the bus, however, everything is guaranteed to happen en route, and the less hardy better band together in the barbedwire barricades. Some guys say ninety percent of the fun is in the bus; imagine what happens in Harradine's car, then square that and multiply by ten!

FOUL BALL GAME

Dormites Sawabe, Harradine, Hayashi, Young, and Allison, aided by Robinson, a 'Y' member, kept right in the win column by soundly trouncing Stromberg-Carlson to the tune of 49 - 23 last Tuesday night.

The most confusing part of it is that all the dormites were in terrible form except Harradine who was worse than that.

Sawabe went in on several runs unopposed and this started the demoralization of S.C. George Young was right there on the rebounds and never did Stromberg pose a serious threat.

Bob Harradine, heavy on his feet from a tough day at work, was floored once and it looked like his opponent was giving him artificial respiration.

Allison, entering in the last quarter, served to relieve Capt. Sawabe whose glasses were broken.

Our game little sparkplug went back in for 'Mayor' Hayashi who hadn't had his customary lemon a day and was sinking a cool .200.

When the old gong sounded, it was a bushed but nevertheless, a victorious team with every element of good sportsmanship.

The team couldn't be as bad as this writer thinks, so come around next - - - FEBRUARY 12TH - and see the next game for yourself!

Talent oft lies hidden, as the following verse will prove. Tho' it took the dental technique to gain publishers' rights, we finally convinced the author, our own JOHN FREUND (525) that he should cease and desist in the foolish art of hiding his light under a bushel. Consequently, we present:

EVENTIDE

I sit alone at the set of the sun
And think of the day gone by,
While the silent shadows of evening form
'Neath the red and purple sky*.
This hour of peace 'twixt the light and the dark
Is the pleasantest part of the day,
For all Nature joins in the quiet prayer
To brush my cares away.

COOKIES BY A ROOKIE SUGAR COOKIE COOKER

A gang of twenty-five Outing Clubbers invaded the rink out Wide Waters way via the RTC Subway last Sunday for the annual skating party.

The ice was slick as were the chicks, and after a few solo rounds most of the gang decided a game of co-ed snap-the-whip was in order. Ere long, however, one of the guardians of the public welfare stopped the practice.

Cups of steaming hot chocolate and whopping cookies served at rinkside helped thaw the gay blades, after which more merriment in the form of a fast and slightly 'roughhouse' game of tag was involved.

Harradine, Easter, and Barrows took turns chasing each other and the vivacious ambassador of the Y.W.C.A., Marion Markel (your correspondent, just drooled).

Supper at Howard Johnson's climaxed a full afternoon. Huzzahs to Kay Zaenglein et al for the nutriment and planning.

Heard at the dinner table the other eve, "I've got lots of interesting things in my room" quoth Howarth.

We've always heard "Sam" was descended from the "Heel Beelies". Perhaps he even has some examples of the turnip termites which are scheduled to raid Dogpatch soon.

Michael Reed of the Central Labor & Trades Council of the AFL and a representative of the Industrial Management Council, will participate in a Forum on the topic of labor relations - FEBRUARY 17 - here at Central 'Y' from 3 - 5 on Sunday afternoon.

ALL INTERESTED IN BALLROOM DANCING, MEET MONDAY NIGHT (FEBRUARY 11TH) at 8:00 p.m.

A CLASS WILL BE FORMED IF ENOUGH ARE INTERESTED!
